STATEMENT OF FACTS

8. 9. The CBA required Abax to make periodic contributions to the Funds for work performed within the trade and geographical jurisdiction of the Union (“Covered Work”).

10. The CBA also required Abax to furnish all pertinent books and payroll records when requested by the Funds for the purpose of conducting an audit to ensure compliance with required benefit fund contributions.

11. The Funds conducted an audit of Abax covering the period August 30, 2010 through December 27, 2015 (the “Audit”), which revealed that Abax failed to remit contributions to the Funds in the principal amount of $241,736.00.

12. Abax refused to pay the delinquencies revealed by the Audit.

THE FUNDS’ FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF AGAINST ABAX (Liability for Delinquent Contributions/Violation of the CBA)

13. The Funds repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation set forth above with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth herein.

14. Section 515 of ERISA provides that “[e]very employer who is obligated to make contributions to a multiemployer plan under the terms of the plan or under the terms of a collectively bargained agreement shall, to the extent not inconsistent with law, make such contributions in accordance with the terms and conditions of such plan or such agreement.” 29 U.S.C. § 1145.

15. Section 301 of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. § 185, authorizes the Funds, as third-party beneficiaries to the CBA, to file a federal lawsuit regarding an employer’s violation of that CBA.

16. At relevant times, Abax was a party to, or otherwise manifested an intent to be bound by, the CBA.

17. The CBA and the documents and instruments governing the Funds required Abax to make specified hourly contributions to the Funds in connection with all Covered Work performed and to submit to and comply with periodic payroll audits when requested by the Funds.

18. Abax failed to pay the delinquent contributions revealed by the Audit.

19. Pursuant to Sections 502 and 515 of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 1132 and 1145, Section 301 of the LMRA, 29 U.S.C. § 185, the CBA, the Funds’ Collection Policy, and the documents and instruments governing the Funds, the Funds are entitled to an order finding that Abax is liable to the Funds for (1) all delinquent contributions, liquidated damages, interest, audit costs, and other damages revealed by the Audit or otherwise found to be due and owing during the course of this litigation and (2) all attorneys’ fees and costs incurred by the Funds in this action.
